Alrik II and Salomea, King and Queen, send our warmest greetings unto the populace of the Outlands. The Feast season has come to an end and what a marvelous time of the year it was. From the far northern snows of the north, to the sandy and wind swept south, We have traveled long and far and seen the true beauty and strength of the Outlands and its populace. We would like to thank the Autocrats, the Cooks, the Servers, and everyone who made these events possible.

Once again the Outlands army has returned victorious from War in the lands of the sun. We congratulate all those Outlands heroes, who fought with unblemished honor, steadfast courage, and exceptional valor. Also, thank you to everyone who volunteered their time and energy to making Estrella a grand and glorious time.

As Winter comes to an end and makes way for the dawning of a new spring, the Outlands bravest will gather to once again fight in Crown tourney. On the 14th of March in Our Barony of Fontaine dans Sable, We request the presence of the mightiest warriors in the Outlands and their consorts to vie for the privilege to be Heirs to the Stag throne. The format of the tourney shall be announced that morning before fighting commences. All warriors and consorts with arms passed must display them in the precesional. All entrants must have sent in letters of intent and be a registered member. Any combatant must have a current green card. Outlanders who wish to fight, bare in mind that the eyes of the Kingdom and the Crown will be on you at all times. Entrants must fight with Chivalry, Integrity, and Bravery; qualities that make a man worthy to sit upon the Stag Throne. We will be watching from the thrones and upon the field. We as the Crown reserve the right to remove any combatant should we feel he has dishonored himself, his opponent, or the Crown. Remember what it is you fight for on this day.

Kingdom Seneshal

If you are anything like me you are still cleaning up from war with the occasional smile crossing your lips as the memories of a wonderful Estrella slip in between the loads of laundry. Thank you to everyone who put so much hard work into making Estrella such a good time.

Now is the perfect time to do all the little repairs to your armor in preparation for Crown Tournament. March 14-15 the Barony of Fontaine dans Sable will host this grand tournament. Please look to the article in this issue and make your reservations. You wouldn't want to miss the pageantry of Crown Tournament.

White Stag

To the good gentles of the kingdom, greetings from White Stag.

As described elsewhere in this issue, the Shire of Drygestan will be hosting a Heralds and Scribes Symposium on April 25th. I hope to see many of the kingdom's heralds and scribes there, as it looks to be educational and entertaining.

Since my last letter, Laurel has released LoARs for both the October and November decision meetings. While the October Cover Letter was quiet, the November Cover Letter was of substantial interest to the general public. Pelican added some new items to the alternate titles list for Russian. Several months ago, Wreath called for a discussion regarding the use of laurel wreaths on branch armory. In this Cover Letter, Wreath ruled that we will continue to require laurel wreaths in branch armory, and that Laurels will not be allowed the use of laurel wreaths in their armory. The discussion brought up some related questions, and Wreath now calls for discussion of two questions. First, should chains and pelicans in their piety be unrestricted for use in armory? (This would -not- affect their use as regalia!) Second, if we continue to reserve items for the other peerages, Wreath would like suggestions on a charge to be restricted for the use of Laurels. I strongly suggest that anyone interested in this topic read the Cover Letter for the full details. If anyone has commentary, feel free to send it to me (whitestag@outlandsheralds.org) and I will get it to the right folks.

To read more about these items, or to check on submissions, view these LoARs at: http://heraldry.sca.org/loar

Outgoing Gimlet Herald

Salutations sent to the people of the Outlands, from Countess Matilda Seton~

I have had the honor of being Gimlet Herald for the better part of eight years. Holding this office has given me some of the greatest and most joyful moments in the SCA, and I will treasure the memories I have garnered during this time.

Please you to know that I have stepped down as Gimlet Herald, turning over the esteemed office to THL Ansteys Darcy, CQG. I most heartily recommend her to you, as one who has the ideals and traditions of the Outlands in the foremost of her mind. I have no doubt that she will succeed in this office whose focus is Ceremonies and Protocol.

Join me in welcoming Ansteys to this new challenge.

Yours Assured,
Matilda Seton

Earl Marshal

Greetings!

The great war is behind us and we had fun! please provide me your thoughts on what went right and what went wrong from a marshalette view point.

Allow me to extend a second invitation for an all marshalls meeting at Outlandish this year. This meeting will cover all aspects of the marshals' world and i strongly encourage all southern marshals to attend. Authorizing marshals must attend in order to stay current. A second meeting will be held in the north - probably Glory.

All marshals and fighters must be active in their inspection and review of the fighting field. Safety is critical.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Archer General

War is over. I want to thank those that came out and lent a hand on the range. Now is the time to start thinking about the summer shooting season. Get your gear out and give it a good checking over. Look for cracks, lose or missing tips on your arrows. Look for missing feathers, bent shafts, even strings that need replaced or fixed. If you are shooting a crossbow check the workings of the trigger release.

This summer holds the promise of many different shoots. We have lots of people that have spent many hours designing and building things for us to shoot holes in. Next time you have a fun time at the range thank the Marshal who set it up.

The Royal Archer tournament is all set up and ready to go. Our Current Royal Archer, Master Daffydd, has come up with a very fun yet challenging shoot to choose our new Royal Archer.

Have fun out on the Range
Forrester

Rapier Marshall

Greetings, Rapiers!

Now that WAR is over, tournament season is upon us. Remember this game of honor should also be fun. Do not lose sight of that in the pursuit of winning: no prize is worth that.

A note about tourneys: when you enter a list, pay heed to the weapons-style of the tourney. If it is a cloak-and-dagger tourney, bring out your A-game for cloak and dagger and do not complain that you cannot use your long-blade.

Also, remember that the marshalls, the autocrat, and the lists-mistress went to a lot of work for our enjoyment. We should play this game in the spirit that they intended and heartily thank them for a job well-done.

YIS,
Don Ulrich
Kingdom Rapier Marshall

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands

A special thank you to all Seneschals of the local groups, who sent me their year-end Youth Activities Reports. We really enjoyed reading about all that is happening in your local groups for the children and teens of the Outlands. Your reports also make my job of reporting to Society, much easier.

A lot of youth activities are planned in the coming months and they can always use volunteers, so please volunteer and offer your support. Your support can include – coordinating the youth activities for an event, asking the coordinator or Minister of Children Officer what they need help with, teaching a class or activity at an event, inviting youth to take your A&S class by advertising the minimum age for a youth to take your class, helping with a class or activity, watching the younger children of someone who will be teaching the youth, donating materials and supplies, suggesting ideas for youth classes and activities, talking with the children and teens about what they would like to see happen at a future event, writing copy for the gate book about the planned youth activities, preparing a flyer for the gate, soliciting and donating food and drink for the youth tent, donating a large sunshade or pavilion for youth activities to take place in, offering to oversee a padded sword melee between the youth and a household or the Stags Bloods, marshalling a melee between the youth and adults, teaching melee safety to the youth, teaching the youth boffer (new term is padded sword) techniques, teach a class on one of the marshal arts or providing opportunities for our youth to be in service.

Anyone interested in supporting youth activities and plans, and discussing youth issues can join the Outlands Youth Team by joining it's discussion list at http://groups.yahoo.com/group/OutlandsYouthTeam. We hope you will join us.

In service to the Outlands,
Jayne Barber

The year is 1573 in Bella Firenze. Giovanni d'Bardi, Count of Vernio, formally invites you to the Court of the Florentine Camerata, hosted in the artistically fertile lands of his dear friends, Bjarki and Asta, the Baron and Baroness of Caer Galen. The great minds and most august men (and women) of Florence will be there assembled in order to restore to glory the great art and music of ancient Greece.

An open call is made to all humanists, artisans, musicians, poets and intellectuals with an interest in 16th century Florence that we may assemble to discuss, practice and guide trends in all the arts. Arts of all kinds will be taught, displayed and evaluated. Fighters will learn techniques and theories of the time. There will be classes and performances in dance, music and theatre. FROM THE SABLE CHAMBER

By: Lord Jethro Stille

Part V: Losing One's Life Over a Bad Cipher

One of the most famous period cases of cryptanalyzation had deadly consequences. It has since become one of the most cited examples of why a good encryption method is so important and why overconfidence can be so costly.

The three biggest participants were Sir Francis Walsingham, Anthony Babington, and Mary Queen of Scots. In what would become known as the Babington Plot, Babington would entice Mary to become involved in an attempt to murder her cousin Queen Elizabeth I. Through a series of plans, not to mention the correct decryption and forgery of Mary's cipher, Walsingham was able to unravel the plot and secure Mary's execution as well as those of her co-conspirators.

The cipher used by the conspirators, although a substitution cipher, was far from trivial. It had over 60 different symbols that included symbols representing words. Additionally, nulles were used (symbols which represented nothing) as were dowbleths (a symbol indicating that the next symbol should be counted twice - to hide double letters). The national archives in Britain, in fact, displays a number of documents relating to this plot including the ciphers themselves.

This month's puzzle, therefore will be similar to the one in the Babington Plot.. There, however, will only be 29 symbols - 26 letters, one nulle, one dowbleth, and one encoded word. Futher hints are given below. After decrypting it, you should see some of the reasons why King Phillip II of Spain was laughed at throughout Europe.

But that fellow Outlanders, is a cipher for another day.

LAST COLUMN'S ANSWER: When the drums beat loud, the liquor flows, and Ursa has shown his face
Come behind the hut so small where the lone tree grows and join in my embrace
Well will you like my feather bed and better you'll like my sheets and best of all you'll like myself when you lay in my arms asleep
[The last two stanzas are derived from the song Matty Groves]

THIS MONTH'S HINTS: 8 equals'A' ; \ equals 'C' ; / equals 'F'; The encoded word is a kingdom.
